Marva Dawn, 21st century

"Sabbath ceasing [means] to cease not only from work itself, but also from the need to accomplish and be productive, from the worry and tension that accompany our modern criterion of efficiency, from our efforts to be in control of our lives as if we were God, from our possessiveness and our enculturation, and finally, from the humdrum and meaninglessness that result when life is pursued without the Lord at the center of it all."

THE PEOPLE OF GOD GATHER

CALL TO WORSHIP

(by John van de Laar)

One: It's a familiar call, Jesus:
a whisper ... almost unheard,
but persistent and unfailing.

"Come," it says.

"Come to me, and I will give you rest."

All: We long for what you offer, Jesus.
We yearn for the still calm of wholeness.
And yet we fear...

What if we are disappointed?
What if we never find what we so desperately desire?

One: But the call remains – “Come to me...”

All: And so, in relief
that our doubts do not silence your invitation;
in faith
that all who answer are filled (even though your gift may surprise us or may be other than we expected);
and in honest admission
of our reticence and uncertainty;
We come.

GOD'S PEOPLE RESPOND

PRAYER OF REFLECTION (by John van de Laar)

One: How frightened we are by Sabbath, Jesus;
how afraid that, if we stop,

All: We'll fall behind,
we'll have less than we want,
we'll lose out to those who don't stop.
How driven we are to protect ourselves,
to hoard what we can get,
to rise above the crowd.
How wounded we and our world have become,
because we have forsaken the wisdom of Sabbath.

One: Teach us again how to be Sabbath People, Jesus;

All: how to trust you for our daily bread;
how to resist the urge to accumulate and hoard;
how to defy the pressure to have more, be more, do more.

One: Teach us to dance to the rhythms of your reign, Jesus;

All: to work meaningfully and rest peacefully;
to enjoy shamelessly and share generously;
to love abundantly and include indiscriminately.

One: Teach us that the small, daily Sabbath-choices we make

All: to trade fairly and consume responsibly,
to treat all others with dignity and respect,
liberate us all from the crippling weight of greed
and fear,
and heal those whose lives are bent and broken
from Sabbathlessness.

Amen.

Offertory

Doxology (page 48 in hymnal) tune: TALLIS' CANON

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Christ all creatures here below;
Praise Holy Spirit evermore;
One God triune, whom we adore. Amen.

Prayer of Dedication (let us pray together . . .)

O Maker and Savior of heaven and earth,
when we come face to face
with our failings, our inadequacies,
our disappointments, our fears,
and so are tempted to try again,
only a bit harder and with greater resolve,
as if we can remake ourselves and our world
by our own efforts and initiative,
remind us that healing and salvation-- ours and the world's--
come solely by turning trustingly to you.
So take these gifts.
We entrust them to you and your purposes.
Do with them what we can only dream of. Amen

Many schools and organizations already collect school supplies. There are other essential needs of children, however, such as clothing, healthy snacks, and hygiene items, that play a role in keeping students healthy and ready to learn. OUR MISSION - Homer Nursery School has become our new mission and there are plans to update the rooms with new flooring, furnishings, and supplies. If you would like to help sort and provide light moving, please contact Rachel Ditch. We look forward to providing a valuable service to our community and supporting some of our youngest people.

We welcome our guest preacher, the Reverend Craig French while Pastor Kathleen is on vacation. Craig is an ordained elder in the United Methodist Church where he served congregations in Buffalo and Syracuse, focusing on urban ministry. Craig retired in 2015 after serving the University United Methodist Church in Syracuse. While in serving in CNY Pastor Kathleen has worked alongside Craig in a community organizing effort, Alliance of Communities Transforming Syracuse (ACTS) as well as the CNY Pride Interfaith Coalition.
