CHILDREN'S MOMENT

(Children through second grade may go to the nursery following The Parade of Gifts.)

A Parade of Gifts

One: Like the Hebrew people in ancient times, we too have come to worship this day to offer our thanksgiving to God for the many gifts that God has given us. We too present symbols of our lives, acknowledging the blessings that are ours to share.

Gifts of Land and Sea

One: First we give thanks for the blessings of this beautiful area, with its wealth of fruit/dairy/grain and produced of all kinds. (containers of items representative of local produce are brought forward.)

All: O wondrous Creator, your greatness is seen in all the world.

One: We place these gifts at the altar as a token of our thanksgiving and as a symbol of the high trust God has placed in us to care for the earth.

Gifts of Home

One: We also give thanks for the gifts of home. We offer now these symbols of our homes and the special relationships that we share. (Gifts of home such as a quilt, a board game, favorite toy, or photo album are brought forward.)

All: Loving Parent, we are at home in your presence.

One: We are also aware of many without homes and adequate shelter. As we present these symbols we are reminded that the gift of human kindness is to be shared with all God's children.

Gifts of Study, Art, and Music

One: God said, "Let us make humankind in our own image" and gave us minds to choose and create. Today we give thanks for the gifts of learning and creativity, for music and art, and the many opportunities that are ours to learn and grow no matter what our age. (Books, musical instruments, an art supplies are brought forward.)

All: Wise and patient Teacher, you have the words of eternal life.

One: We present these symbols as a token of our thanksgiving for the wonders of the mind, and of our calling to fill our minds and world with things that are true, noble, right, pure, lovely, and honorable.

Gifts of Industry and Technology

One: We are partners working together with God for the good of all. We give thanks for the gifts of modern technology that contribute to medicine, learning, communication, entertainment, leisure. (Symbols such as laptop computer, food processors, and smart phone are brought forward.)

All: Artist and Technician of the universe, you care for the largest mountain and the tiniest atom.

One: We present to God these symbols of our modern world, as a token of our thanksgiving for the richly varied world in which we live, and as symbol of our concern that they be used to build a more humane society for all people.

Gift of Faith

One: We give thanks for the gift of faith, in a world where many are lost and afraid. We are especially thankful for the life of Jesus who came to show us God's love in a real and tangible way that we could understand. And we give thanks for this church, this community of love and support, of healing and shared tears.
(Gifts of faith such as a Bible, chalice, and loaf of bread are brought forward.)

All: God of love, you are with us always even to the end of time.

One: We offer these symbols to God, remembering that we have been called to be the hands and feet of Christ in our world. We come seeking to be nourished so that we may go out to serve the world in joy with thanksgiving.

(The liturgy of "A Parade of Gift" is taken from Seasons of the Spirit, Congregational Life.)
