THE PEOPLE OF GOD GATHER

CALL TO WORSHIP

One: Our Mother-Father God
has made us to be One Body with many members.

All: United and uniting. This is our calling.

One: God calls us to share our diverse gifts activated by the one and same Spirit .

All: United and uniting. This is our redemption.

One: God longs for us to be united in love and to manifest the Spirit in our different ways.

All: United and uniting. This is our worship.

One: Let us gather in this hour to offer praise and worship to our Holy God, who challenges us and calls us to create the Beloved Community.

HYMN # # 680

O God of Every Nation

PRAYER OF APPROACH (let us pray together . . .)

O God, all people are your Beloved, across races, nationalities, religions, sexual orientations and all the ways we are distinctive from one another. We are all manifestations of your image. Let us know your presence among us now.

Let us delight in our diversity that offers glimpses of the mosaic of your beauty. Strengthen us with your steadfast love and transform our despairing fatigue into hope-filled action.

Under the shadow of your wings in this hour may we find rest and strength, renewal and hope. We ask this, inspired by the example of your disciple, Martin Luther King, Jr., and in Jesus' name. Amen.

WORDS OF GOD'S ENDURING LOVE

One: Thank you, God for delighting in us even now, for forgiving us our slow action, our silence and our weariness, for empowering our work and inviting us once again to create with you the Beloved Community you long for.

All: Amen.

GOD'S PEOPLE RESPOND

LITANY OF RESPONSE

One: A child once dreamed the Voice was calling his name... 'Samuel';

One: Fisherman once heard the Voice when a young man bid them follow;

And still the Voice beckons today... can you hear?

All: Here I am. Send me.

One: Moses protested vehemently as the Voice spoke at the burning bush;

One: Mary stood amazed as the Voice proclaimed impending birth;

And still the Voice beckons today... can you hear?

All: Here I am. Send me.

One: Rosa Parks followed the Voice to the front of the bus;

One: Martin Luther King, Jr. heard the Voice as the bullet shattered;

And still the Voice beckons today... can you hear?

All: Here I am. Send me.

One: The Voice beckons from humble places... in the tears of hungry children, in the cries of the frail and frightened elderly, in the pleas of those whose dreams have been too long deferred;

And still the Voice beckons today... can you hear?

All: Here I am. Send me.

One: A timid believer pauses to listen to the Voice;
A struggling church hears the Voice and turns;
And still the Voice beckons today... can you hear?

All: Here I am. Send me.

PRAYERS OF THE CONGREGATION

The Lord's Prayer (unison)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil: for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

POSTLUDE All Glory Be To God On High Albrecht

Excerpt from Letter from the Birmingham Jail

The following is an excerpt from an open letter written on April 16, 1963, by Martin Luther King Jr.. The letter defends the strategy of nonviolent resistance to racism.

I must make two honest confessions to you, my Christian and Jewish brothers. First, I must confess that over the last few years I have been gravely disappointed with the white moderate. I have almost reached the regrettable conclusion that the Negro's great stumbling block is not the White Citizen's Council-er or the Ku Klux Klanner, but the white moderate who is more devoted to "order" than to justice, who prefers a negative peace which is the absence of tension to a positive peace which is the presence of justice, who constantly says "I agree with you in the goal you seek, but I can't agree with your methods of direct action," who paternalistically believes that he can set the timetable for another's man's freedom.
