

WEEKDAY WORDS

Reaching out to you from Homer Congregational United Church of Christ
Thursday, September 5, 2019

This Sunday, September 8 is Rally Day, and we return to our regular schedule:
9:30 a.m. Faith Formation
10:30 Worship Celebration

A Note About Sundays...

We are asking our Nursery volunteers and Child Care Coordinator to arrive at 9 a.m. Then our Nursery will be open from 9:15 a.m. until after worship concludes. That way, parents who want to attend one or more of our many adult Faith Formation opportunities will be able to do so from 9:30 to 10:15 a.m. During worship, our young ones will be dismissed after the Children's Time. However, we are asking parents to consider something new. Pastor Vicki and Pastor Gary both believe it is important for children and youth to be in worship so they can learn the hymns and better understand our liturgy. With that in mind, we encourage parents to allow their K-2 children to remain in worship (but we understand if there are days when a healthy separation is helpful and necessary!). As Pastor Gary noted in a recent letter to parents, he and Bonnie personally found it helpful to sit closer to the front when Elijah was small, and to even talk quietly to him about what was going on (in addition to having a busy-bag and small snacks). Both of your pastors had similar experiences when they were young, and it helped them to learn more, feel better involved, and be excited by church. Of course, we leave it completely up to parental judgment, but we want you to know our youngest children are ALWAYS welcome in worship!
