

SATURDAY WORDS

Reaching out to you from Homer Congregational United Church of Christ
Saturday, April 4, 2020

Today:

Beginning at 6:45 this evening, luminaries will be set alongside the sidewalk from Main street to our church. Palm branches will be scattered on the walkway. If you feel like taking a car ride or an evening stroll (please keep a safe distance from others) – come by and have a look. The palm branches are for the taking, either tonight or tomorrow.

On Sunday:

9:00 a.m. Go to: www.homercc.com to find the link to worship. While it will be available at 9, you decide when you want to participate. We hope you will listen, mediate, sing and pray with us. To prepare, read about Jesus' entry into Jerusalem as told by Mark in chapter 11 and by Luke in chapter 19. Pastor Vicki's reflection is titled "Wait... What?" Kids – get ready to teach your parents as we sing some of the songs from Church Camp!

11:00 a.m. Join Bonnie Smith and Belinda Burtson as they continue to discuss chapter five of Brené Brown's Daring Greatly. The Zoom link is in your email.

1:00 p.m. Pastor Vicki will have a Zoom gathering with our college students.

6:00 p.m. Zoom Practice Session

Here is another chance to try Zoom. Let Pastor Gary know if you are interested and he will send you an invitation. Either he or Brian Cornwell can help you experience Zoom with your computer (requires a camera), tablet or smartphone.

7:00 p.m. Pastor Gary will host Games for Youth on Zoom

7:00 -7:40 Junior High Youth Group

7:45 - 8:30 Senior High Youth Group
