

WEEKDAY WORDS

Homer Congregational United Church of Christ
Thursday, April 15, 2021

THIS SUNDAY

The cranes are flocking on the Homer Congregational United Church of Christ's green! Join us for worship at 10:30 AM this Sunday and then come back to enjoy Festive Music for Trumpet and Organ at 3:00 PM. Masks are worn and seating is distanced. During worship, Rev. Vicki Burtson will consider the resurrection story in Luke 24. Linda Homer is the Trustee of the Day. The service will be live-streamed and it will be available online by noon. Find the link for our service at: www.homercc.com.

Festive Music for Trumpet and Organ at 3 PM

Trumpeter, Ralph Dudgeon, and organist, Ken Herman will perform a concert of Festive Music for Trumpet and Organ. There is no admission charge, but a freewill offering will benefit the Food Pantry in Homer. The audience will be masked and seated according to CDC guidelines. Help us spread the word! Bring your young trumpet students...your kids learning to play the keyboard...your neighbors who love fine music...your friends who would enjoy an outing.

Sunday, May 2 at 1:00
Our Black fiction reading group examines Black experiences in the United States through fiction. All are welcome! We will be discussing Americanah by Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie via Zoom. Winner of the National Book Critics Circle Award for fiction, Americanah is the story of a young Nigerian woman's immigration to the United States for college, her experiences of race and racism as "a non-American Black," her return to Nigeria years later, and the effects of these migrations on her loves, languages, and life.

Saturday, May 15 at 11 AM A Celebration of the Life of Dale Halstead

Come and stroll through the Cranes of Hope flying on our green!
