

WEEKDAY WORDS

Thursday, January 13, 2022

THIS SUNDAY

- 9:30 Faith Formation for all ages. The adults will study chapters 12 & 13.
- 10:30 Worship
We begin a sermon series for Epiphany entitled "I Dream..." Guest preacher, the Rev. Janice Michaels Marsi will use Isaiah 62:1-4a as the foundation for her sermon A Dream of Ordinary Time(s). A retired pastor and former District Superintendent in the United Methodist Church, Jan is one of PV's dearest friends. She is a painter, writer, master gardener, and singer. On Sunday, Terry Pedersen and Bev Berry are the Deacon and Trustee of the day.
Be sure to pick up and read the report booklets for Annual Meeting!
- The Mission Committee reminds us about the special offering:
2021 Severe Storms/December TORNADOS
They will match our offering and add $1,000. Bring this special offering on Sunday.
- 11:45 Bible Study upstairs

THIS WEEK

- Monday In celebration of Martin Luther King, Jr.'s birthday, our office is closed.
- Tuesday Homer Nursery School Board meets at 4:30.

NEXT SUNDAY

- 9:30 Faith Formation for all ages.
- 10:30 Worshipful Work – ANNUAL MEETING
Join us as we review 2021 and prepare for 2022 – all through the lens of God's call upon our lives – individually and collectively. The service/meeting will not be live-streamed.

COMING UP

- Sunday, January 30 Take 2: receiving New Members
Due to ice, we canceled the service last Sunday. The celebration of new membership will now be January 30. We welcome to our membership Julie Freeman, Rev. Laurel Harte-Westover, Amanda McCaslin, and Sheri Saddlemire. Roosevelt's grandmother is headed to FL, so we will reschedule his baptism for the Spring.

Coming in February: Winner, Winner, Chicken Dinner competition.
Stayed tuned!
